A TICKET AROUND THE WORLD

CONVERSATION STARTERS

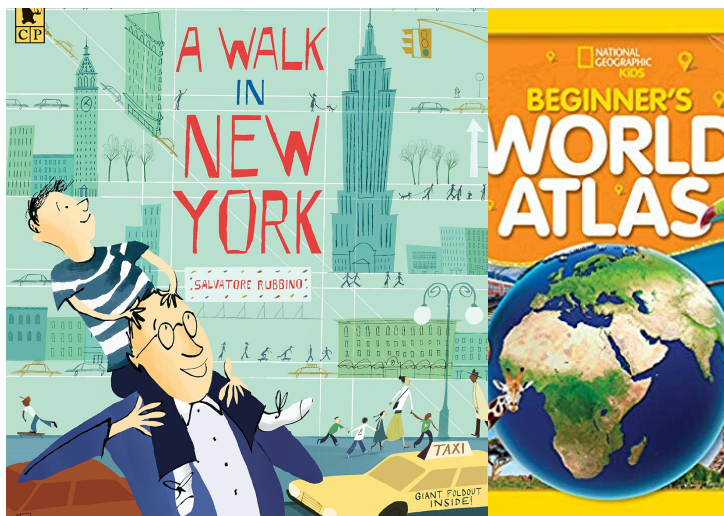

- Point and look for special monuments, temples and buildings around the world. Which looks the most interesting? Why?
- Take the “Do You Remember” quiz at the end of the book.
- We visited 13 countries in this book. If you were given a plane ticket and passport, which country would you like to explore? Why? What would you do there?
- Look up one of the countries on Google Maps. What is similar from the book? Different?

PLOT SUMMARY

Grab your ticket and hop around the globe to learn about history, geography and languages. Bike around France and stop to eat some cheese. Stop at an ancient temple in India and enjoy some spicy curry. Sit with a Bedouin tribe in Jordan. Hit Botswana, the Philippines, Greece, Costa Rica, Australia, China, Canada, and Morocco too.

This book is great because you can skim the pages, jump to your favorite country or read page-by-page. Return to it as your child grows and learns more information about the world.

HOST A GLOBAL TEA PARTY

Around the world, people drink tea and invite guests to sit and talk. Have your own international tea-party

To do:

- Plan your menu (think little cookies, fruit salad, bite-size sandwiches)
- Select your "tea" (i.e. apple juice, water, or lemonade).
- Set the table (fancy tablecloth, tea cups, and any other décor)
- Make an extra connection to the book by wearing hats to represent different countries and their guests who may come to drink tea (Beret, sombrero, cowboy, a fez, turban, Aussie bush hat, Ayam, etc)

CREATIVE WRITING FOR KIDS

Draw a suitcase. Then, pick one country to visit. Draw or write what items you would pack when you travel to that special place.
